

PAM ROSEWELL MOORE

About Pam

Pam is a narrative speaker. This means that her talks, in which important themes are brought forward, take the form of stories from her life and work. Each talk is carefully based on the Bible. Lengths of speaking times on the theme or topic requested vary according to the desires of those who invite her to speak.

At every speaking event she invites the listener to come with her on a journey which usually includes her own story of the power and faithfulness of the Lord Jesus, as well as many examples from some of those whose lives have touched hers.
